Barbara Blatter and Cadel Evans Win World Cup #6

Barbara Blatter took the lead of the womens' five-lap race within one lap on Sunday morning, leading a small but powerful group of women up and around the green wooded venue of Mt. Ste-Anne on a warm and humid morning. With one world cup win under her belt earlier this season in St. Wendel, Blatter rode with the confidence to lead Canadian Chrissy Redden (Gary Fisher/Saab), world cup leader Alison Dunlap (USA, Team GT) and a new arrival to the front this season, Regina Marunde (GER, Focus).

Blatter continued to lead the field in the subsequent laps as Redden chased her closely, Dunlap chasing Marunde for the third place position, approximately one minute back. But Blatter - with Redden close behind - had a gap of nearly a minute on Marunde as the two frontrunners set up an exciting finish.

Mary Grigson (AUS, Gary Fisher/Saab), who started the race in 10th position, put on a now familiar laterace attack to move up to 5th position, while Ruthie Matthes (USA, Trek Volkswagen) moved down one position from 5th to 6th as the race began to wind down.

In the fifth and final lap Blatter attacked Redden on a long fireroad climb out of the start area, powering up and over the hilltop to put a sizeable lead on Redden, one that would last the remainder of the race. Redden tried to respond but couldn't, finishing the lap 18 seconds back and earning her best finish of the season.

"I attacked the whole lap" said Blatter. "I kept my energy up, and was nervous toward the end - but I did what I could on the climbs. I felt weak in my legs for much of the race, so I ran some sections. My tactic was to do what I could and hope it would hold."

"Barbara was very strong over the climbs," said second-place Redden. "I don't know how I had caught her earlier, but there I was with her - but she attacked too hard on top of the climbs. I loved the course though, it was really challenging."

Third place went to German Regina Marunde (GER, Focus), whose previous best finish was 5th place here at Mont Ste-Anne in 1996. "I'm really happy, it was a good race" she said. "My first podium since '96, I can't believe it! It was a tough course with hard climbs, but I liked it."

Marunde started racing in 1991, and is an alternate on the German national team going to the Olympics. Her best season before this was 1996.
