XC#3: HOUFFALIZE, BEL - 18-20.5.2001

Fullana and Bui Win Houffalize Time Trial:

Marga Fullana (ESP, Specialized) and Marco Bui (ITA, A.S. Marin Helly Hansen) each won their second TT of the 2001 season Saturday, as round three of the Tissot-UCI Mountain Bike World Cup cross-country series brought another exciting weekend of racing to Europe.

Houffalize, Belgium hosts the world's top racers on a classic and time-honoured course in the country's Ardennes region - for the second-straight week of European racing.

Crowds were typically large and weather partly cloudy when the men and women challenged one lap of the 7.7km course - to gain overall points and maximize their starting position for Sunday's XC event.

Marga Fullana (ESP, Specialized) went third from last Saturday afternoon, posting the fastest time and improving her overall standings after missing round one in Napa. She had won last week's TT event in Sarentino, and used her momentum to again take the victory here in Belgium.

"I feel better than last week, more healthy - and all is good for Sunday's race I think," she said afterward. "I had passed Alison Sydor and Sabine Spitz, and was very close to Caroline Alexander by the finish."

Fullana's mechanic made a late-morning tyre change to a smaller tyre for shedding the mud that was hindering riders during morning training, which helped her by the time she raced in mid-afternoon. She finished 27 seconds faster than second-place Annabella Stropparo (ITA, Be-One), who rode a strong first lap in last week's Italian XC race. Third place was Caroline Alexander (GBR, Specialized), followed by Alison Dunlap (USA, Team GT) and series-leading Barbara Blatter (SUI, Specialized).

Blatter retains the yellow Tissot leader's jersey, with Stropparo two points back in second overall, while Fullana moves up to third overall.
